Multiple Impressions: Contemporary Chinese Woodblock Prints Teacher Workshop

Wednesday, October 19, 4–8 pm

Please join fellow teachers at UMMA for an exploration of the breathtaking art of Multiple Impressions: Contemporary Chinese Woodblock Prints. This stunning exhibition presents works by forty-one leading printmakers from contemporary China and showcases the extraordinary innovations, in both technique and conception, which have transformed this long-established art form in recent years. This teacher workshop will provide an important framework for understanding both contemporary art from China and contemporary Chinese society. Local educators with an interest in dynamic and popular print media as well as anyone with an interest in contemporary China will find this workshop interesting and valuable.

The workshop will feature a gallery talk by guest curator Dr. Xiaobing Tang, Helmut F. Stern Professor of Modern Chinese Studies at UM, and a talk on the context of contemporary art and culture in China. Hands-on printmaking activities (appropriate for a range of student ages), a light meal, and a file of lesson plans and contextual information will be available to all participants.
